FOREWORD

Many books are being published for elementary school boys and girls to read related to the areas of physical education and recreation. It is through these areas that some pupils obtain and enhance their interest in reading.

This annotated bibliography of books that elementary pupils can read was developed to assist teachers and librarians. The material was prepared by Astrid Hansel, a librarian.

The Bureau of Physical Education and Recreation and the Bureau of Reading worked cooperatively with the Bureau of Elementary Curriculum Development in preparing this manuscript for press.
